

Notification of The Institute for the Promotion of Teaching Science and Technology
On Intention of Administration with Honesty

In accordance with the National Strategy for the Prevention and Suppression of Corruption, Phase 3 B.E. 2560 – 2564 (2017 – 2021) and the Ministry of Education's policy and measure on “administration with transparency and anti-corruption”, The Institute for the Promotion of Teaching Science and Technology (IPST) has continuously committed to the prevention and suppression of corruption in the organization by creating a culture of anti-corruption, enhancing the educational administration with good governance, and reforming the process of the prevention and suppression of corruption.

IPST hereby notifies its intention of administration with honesty to its executives and personnel with the following practices:

1. Promote its administration with honesty, morality, transparency, and good governance in providing impartial and proper services to the public
2. Encourage all stakeholders to participate in the monitoring, prevention and suppression of any forms of corruption and misconduct
3. Support any actions that carry on for public interests and withstand any actions that lead to conflict of interest or corruption as well as giving/taking benefits to/from stakeholders, such as giving/taking gifts, holding reception, or bribing to gain both direct and indirect personal advantages
4. Adhere to the policy on the prevention and suppression of corruption and instill the right attitudes and moral values on anti-corruption and anti-misconduct
5. In cases of witnessing any forms of corruption and misconduct involving IPST, it is an obligation of the personnel to inform supervisor(s) or the person(s) responsible and to cooperate in verifying the issue
6. Protect any personnel or witnesses that provide information involving corruption and misconduct and resort to related measures to protect the complainants and witnesses

Please be informed of this notification and adhere accordingly.
