

Notification of The Institute for the Promotion of Teaching Science and Technology
On Intention of Administration with Honesty
“IPST TRUST & Zero Corruption”
Fiscal Year 2022

As an agency that values the prevention and suppression of corruption, The Institute for the Promotion of Teaching Science and Technology (IPST) hereby notifies that its personnel will adhere to the main institutions, i.e. nation, religion, and monarchy, behave with virtue, perform their duties with honesty, and live their lives with human dignity. IPST personnel will have moral courage to perform their government services and refrain from defrauding the nation. IPST personnel will not tolerate any forms of corruption and dishonesty, nor will they use their position to take advantage of the suffering of people. In accordance with the principles of good administration, i.e. honesty, unity, responsibility, accountability, transparency, achievement orientation, and courage to do the right thing, IPST personnel will perform their duties to the best of their abilities and abide by the ethical standards of government officials and of IPST.

IPST personnel will follow in the king's footsteps, inherit the royal wishes, uphold the teachings of the righteous king, live by the Sufficiency Economy Philosophy, have pure perseverance, and stand by honest people, for the stability, prosperity, and sustainability of the Kingdom of Thailand will endure.

Please be informed of this notification and adhere accordingly.

Notified on 6 January 2022

Professor Sukit Limpijumnong, Ph.D.

President

The Institute for the Promotion of Teaching Science and Technology